Donate to Vedic School

"Vedo Rakshati Rakshitaha." If you protect the Veda, the Veda will protect you.

Vydic Foundation of India, Vijayawada, Andhra Pradesh, India Your donation to the Vydic Foundation of India Will help to support young Brahman boys to complete their studies to become a Vedic Pundit (priest), and also various other philanthropic activities including feeding the poor, assisting poor families with their emergency medical needs, assisting poor students and daily gau (cow) seva.

Our Vedic school's students will be completely trained in one of the four Vedas - Rik, Sama, Yajur, and Atharva - as well as knowing how to converse in, read and write Sanskrit. They will also be trained in Smartha, which are all of the necessary rituals and samskaras that a Vedic priest is required to know. Once a student has completed his course of study, he will be fully prepared to have a career as a Vedic Pundit. This will allow him to support his family and most importantly, preserve and promote Vedic Yagnyas and the knowledge contained in the Vedas throughout the world. For more complete information on the Vydic Foundation of India and the Vedic School please visit <http://www.vydicfoundation.org>

Yes, I want to do what I can to help vedic school and preserve vedic knowledge.
